Candidate Profile

Please state your name to the Zuni people Ruelben Ghahate

What position are you vying for? Tribal Councilman

Marital Status: Single

Clans: Badger-Donashikwe / Bitchi:Kwe

Education: Bachelor's Degree from Eastern NM University (Portales)
Also course work from San Juan College, University of NM.

Career Experience: Worked as a pharmacy tech, administrative assistant, but spent mostly in education, teaching Jr. High at both public & private schools.

Vision Statement: To unite and bring together all stakeholders for the betterment of our community and quality of life

Leadership Experience: Former councilman, under Eriacho/shadé administration (1995-99). Was an initial member of Board for Main Street. Also was on the Veterans Memorial Park project, contributing to the design and planning. Now on the Sports Complex project in the same capacity.

Holistic: Please state your traditional and culture values, beliefs, and philosophy:

Coming from a traditional oriented family, my culture values & beliefs are paramount and that my philosophy of this is strong and is getting stronger day in & day out.

Year 2022 is a State and County election year; do you feel it is important for the Zuni tribe to participate in the process? Definitely

Why or Why not: Because our constitution grants us the privilege to vote to demonstrate our interest in the quality of life in all aspects. Voter count also determines amount of federal monies to infrastructure needs.

If you were elected to the position you are vying for, What vision or aspirations do you have for your community? As a tribe?
